

Daily Bulletin

Victor Junior High

November 5, 2019
TODAY IS AN “A” DAY

Modified Winter Sports: registration is available online today! Your parent/guardian must register online. The choices are modified boys and girls basketball, boys swim, wrestling and cheer. Be sure that you have a current physical at the nurse's office. Listen to the announcements for start dates and other details.

Attention all artists! VJH is starting an art club!! Our first meeting will be on: activity period TODAY. We will meet in: Room 137- Ms. Marvin's Room. This will be an interest meeting to discuss our plan for the school year! Please join this awesome art experience! All are welcome to attend.

Attention all Young Women's Leadership girls: If you are going on the field trip to WHAM TV next week, turn in your permission slips to Mrs. Gordon or Mrs. Cowles by today.

Attention girls modified basketball: There will be an informational meeting on November 12th after school in the JH gym for any girl interested in playing modified basketball this winter.

A message from the library.... Overdue notices are being distributed first period this morning. Attention all substitute teachers: you will find the overdue notices on the teacher's desk if you have a first period class. Students coming to the Library to use a computer should bring their overdue books with them.

Attention anyone auditioning for All County Jazz Ensemble, Mr. Pelton is offering a workshop today during activity period. Please plan to attend to work on the music.

Don't Forget: Mrs. Whipple's study hall will meet in room 187 today. Write it down - Room 187 in the Foreign Language Wing.