TODAY IS A "D" DAY

ANNOUNCEMENTS for Students:

Acts of Kindness Club (A.O.K.) Announcement...Are you looking to make the world a better place? Do you like brightening other people's day? This world needs more A.O.K.s! Join A.O.K. Club this Thursday at the Club Expo during your lunch period to find out how you can spread kindness one act at a time.

A Message from the Library...The Book Fair opens on Wednesday and will be here through Friday. It will be open during regular school hours and from 6pm-9pm during the Open House on Thursday. Stop by the Library for a flyer or if you need any information.

Do you like to take pictures? Do you like to be creative? Do you enjoy time with friends? Consider joining Yearbook Club this year! We will be having our first meeting of the year this Wednesday, September 19th in Mrs. I's room (255). We hope to see you there!

Congratulations to the Marching Band, as they traveled to Hilton for their 2nd competition of the season. The Marching Blue Devils once again took first place, and once again achieved the highest score in the Conference for week 2 with an 82.35! Well done!

Do you like to be outdoors? You can join the Go Green Garden Team! Join us in a "flash mob" garden session this Wednesday during activity period – (no experience required) – be at Mrs. Bolger's room (room 259) by 2:20. We will be back in time for practice or the activity bus. For more information, please see or email Mrs. Bolger. Join our team!

Picture re-take day is this Friday. Those of you who wish to have your picture taken, please listen for your team to be called throughout the day on Friday. Picture forms are located in the Main Office.
